

Decadiurnal Review #6

RESETTING EXPECTATIONS!!!

Graphs and that

<http://emmatradle.com/graphs.html>

No map included because it will automatically give away number 61 and i cant be bothered to delete a row

Commentary on how weve done

Aria - annoyingly consistent im praying she goes back to getting it in 3 everytime.
Cameroon in 1 is a bit silly inniy.

Will - lost his grand streak hurrah!! getting his lil family-peninsula in four is enough embarrassment to make up for nailing saint martin in 2.

Me - i think ive gained like 1 point on our leading couple?? Smug about tonga in 1 tho

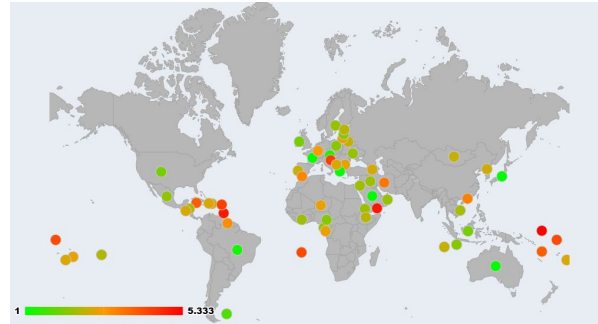

Bish - a sly and subtle pullaway from the bottom of the pack. Consistency pays off i guess. Saint martin in 3 cant have hurt.

Speke - cracks are starting to show as noe creeps up every now and then (Brazil in 2? cmon) not your greatest decade but at least you got oz in 1!

Noe - i was really rooting for your comeback cameroon and gibraltar results go so hard. Shame you had to go and tonga it all up

JLipz - also returning to form kinda - saint martin is an understandable 7 for having 0 map rights but some more tonga-in-2s could help you out a bit

I was joshing about the map i swear

Hope Ive reset your expectations to zero

Seeya next decade ;)
